PEACE PROMOTERS PROGRAM

Peace Through Action's Peace Promoters program provides opportunities for everyday people to encourage peaceful behavior and reject aggression and violence.

Peace Promoters Activities

- Content Sharing—content on diverse populations, current events affecting social distress, forms of aggression and violence, and types of peace practices disseminated through our social media channels in infographic, quiz, reel, and other formats. We then encourage our followers to share our content with their networks.

- Featured Peacebuilders—interviews with ordinary people doing extraordinary things to increase peace in their communities. <https://peacethroughaction.org/featured-peacebuilders>
- Peaceful Communicator Pledge—an invitation to everyday people to consistently demonstrate decency and refrain from expressing or propagating aggression or violence in their public written and oral communication and social sharing.

Our Peace Promoters

Anyone wanting to spread messages on practical actions we can take to increase peace in our relationships and communities can be a peace promoter! Our Peace Promoters activities are set up for everyday people. Becoming a peace promoter with Peace Through Action is a low-expectation commitment – as easy as sharing our social media posts or nominating someone from their network for featured peacebuilder recognition. All we ask of our peace promoters is that they consistently communicate peacefully.
